What we do
Quarriers North East Glasgow Family Support Services help families develop positive relationships and build on their strengths.

Our principles
Quarriers North East Glasgow Family Support Services supports the whole family by:
• keeping children’s needs at the heart of everything we do
• giving each family the right support when they need it
• helping families feel more connected in their community

Our facilities
Quarriers Family Support Service in Barlanark and Quarriers Family Resource Centre in Ruchazie offer:
• one-to-one support
• parenting advice and support with accredited programmes
• groupwork programmes to fit the needs of children and parents
• activities in school breaks
Quarriers Family Resource Centre also offers:
• nursery provision for under 3s
• an open door policy with a member of staff on hand when you need it

Referrals
We accept referrals from agencies and parents.
If you are interested in making a referral, please get in touch through the contact details overleaf.
We will get in touch within seven days of receiving your referral.

What families say about us
““They helped me out a lot with my relationship with my youngest son.”
““The nursery is a fantastic place. Since my son has started going, he has come on leaps and bounds, going from a clingy, teary little boy to happy and cheerful.”
““We all have different personalities and different problems, but we can all get together and get on.”
““Their support helps to maintain stability within families.”
